

NDT Inspector

IDEAL CANDIDATE

- Technical University degree - is an advantage
- Relevant experience as a NDT Inspector - 3 years
- PC operating skills - Microsoft Office package
- Attention to detail, accountability
- Spoken and written English proficiency

JOB DESCRIPTION

- Perform system capability check
- Responsible for up keeping equipment
- Maintain system solutions
- Proficient with customer specifications
- Perform NDT inspections (appropriate to the certification level)
- Performing the NE chemical process (Nital etch)
- Proficient in reading, interpreting and evaluating indications
- Organize, maintain and report records of NDT

The company

BMT Group is an international industrial holding company with Belgian capital with 3 main divisions.

BMT Aerospace specializes in the development and production of precision gears, transmissions and actuators for the aerospace industry.

BMT Aerospace division is firmly focused on international growth being active in 3 locations worldwide: the USA, Romania and Belgium, and has an impressive portfolio of clients such as Boeing, Airbus, Bombardier and Rolls Royce.

Our mission is to stay market leader by working only with products of the highest quality and by maintaining long-term relations with the partners and by showing genuine commitment to the projects of the customers.